

Los Angeles In-Kind Donations

At this time, we are accepting hygiene products, Hygiene Kits, diapers sizes three and up, Care Kits, Welcome Home Kits, and gift cards. For all other donations, we rely heavily on our community partners to help manage and redistribute items for our clients. For information on our partners and their drop off locations, please refer to the list below.

For additional questions, please contact the PATH Development Department at PATHVolunteers@epath.org or (323) 644-2238.

Food Donations

Food Finders is a multi-regional food bank and food rescue program which supports Orange County, Los Angeles County, and beyond. Volunteer and staff drivers pick-up donated food from hundreds of local grocery stores, bakeries, restaurants and produce markets and distribute it directly to missions, shelters, and social service agencies that feed the needy and impoverished.

For more information about donating perishable food, please contact Christopher Wong, Food Donor Coordinator, at (562) 283-1400x105 or cwong@foodfinders.org.

The SOVA Community Food and Resource Program is a Jewish Family Service of Los Angeles hunger and poverty relief program. SOVA provides free groceries and essential supportive services to help people struggling with the short and long term consequences of poverty, as well as people affected by economic downturns.

For more information on donating food, please call (818) 988-7682.

L.A. Kitchen believes that neither food nor people should ever go to waste. By reclaiming healthy, local food that would otherwise be discarded, training men and women who are unemployed for jobs, and providing healthy meals to fellow citizens, L.A. Kitchen empowers, nourishes, and engages the community.

For more information about donating food to LA Kitchen, please contact Michela Ruiz at mruiz@lakitchen.org or (818) 213-8819.

Donations for Children

By distributing new and gently used items to 68 partner organizations, including PATH, the non-profit Baby2Baby serves over 100,000 children every year. Support families by donating diapers, clothing and all the basic necessities that every child deserves.

For more information, call (323) 933-2229 or visit <http://www.baby2baby.org/>

Donations for Pets

The Bark Avenue Foundation's mission is to empower pet owners and local communities to reduce abandoned animal populations through spay/neuter, pet retention and reclamation, and education. They also collect and redistribute gently used bedding, collars, leashes and other goods for those in need.

For more information, contact (323) 553-2349 or help@barkavenuefoundation.org.

CARS Vehicle Donation Program

CARS Vehicle Donation Service accepts most cars, trucks, trailers, boats, RV's, off road vehicles, heavy equipment, and most other motorized vehicles. If you have any questions about what you can donate, please call them toll-free at 855-500-RIDE or 855-500-7433 seven days a week. All donations are tax deductible. The amount that is tax deductible is the sale price of your vehicle.
